Juneteenth is the oldest known celebration commemorating the ending of slavery in the United States. On June 19, 1865 the news reached Galveston, Texas that the war had ended and that the enslaved were now free. Please note this was two and half years after President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation –which had become official on January 1, 1863.

THANK YOU – Your expressions of sympathy were a comfort. Please accept our heartfelt thanks.

The family of Jessie Lee Potts
